Notice to Respondent

Warning: Any statement you make may be used against you in removal proceedings.

Alien Registration: This copy of the Notice to Appear served upon you is evidence of your alien registration while you are under removal proceedings. You are required to carry it with you at all times.

Representation: If you so choose, you may be represented in this proceeding, at no expense to the Government, by an attorney or other individual authorized and qualified to represent persons before the Executive Office for Immigration Review, pursuant to 8 CFR 3.16. Unless you so request, no hearing will be scheduled earlier than ten days from the date of this notice, to allow you sufficient time to secure counsel. A list of qualified attorneys and organizations who may be available to represent you at no cost will be provided with this notice.

Conduct of the hearing: At the time of your hearing, you should bring with you any affidavits or other documents, which you desire to have considered in connection with your case. If you wish to have the testimony of any witnesses considered, you should arrange to have such witnesses present at the hearing.

At your hearing you will be given the opportunity to admit or deny any or all of the allegations in the Notice to Appear and that you are inadmissible or removable on the charges contained in the Notice to Appear. You will have an opportunity to present evidence on your own behalf, to examine any evidence presented by the Government, to object, on proper legal grounds, to the receipt of evidence and to cross examine any witnesses presented by the Government. At the conclusion of your hearing, you have a right to appeal an adverse decision by the immigration judge.

You will be advised by the immigration judge before whom you appear of any relief from removal for which you may appear eligible including the privilege of departure voluntarily. You will be given a reasonable opportunity to make any such application to the immigration judge.

Failure to appear: You are required to provide the DHS, in writing, with your full mailing address and telephone number. You must notify the Immigration Court immediately by using Form EOIR-33 whenever you change your address or telephone number during the course of this proceeding. You will be provided with a copy of this form. Notices of hearing will be mailed to this address. If you do not submit Form EOIR-33 and do not otherwise provide an address at which you may be reached during proceedings, then the Government shall not be required to provide you with written notice of your hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing at the time and place designated on this notice, or any date and time later directed by the Immigration Court, a removal order may be made by the immigration judge in your absence, and you may be arrested and detained by the DHS.

Mandatory Duty to Surrender for Removal: If you become subject to a final order of removal, you must surrender for removal to one of the offices listed in 8 CFR 241.16(a). Specific addresses on locations for surrender can be obtained from your local DHS office or over the internet at <http://www.ice.gov/about/dro/contact.htm>. You must surrender within 30 days from the date the order becomes administratively final, unless you obtain an order from a Federal court, immigration court, or the Board of Immigration Appeals staying execution of the removal order. Immigration regulations at 8 CFR 241.1 define when the removal order becomes administratively final. If you are granted voluntary departure and fail to depart the United States as required, fail to post a bond in connection with voluntary departure, or fail to comply with any other condition or term in connection with voluntary departure, you must surrender for removal on the next business day thereafter. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you will be ineligible for all forms of discretionary relief for as long as you remain in the United States and for ten years after departure or removal. This means you will be ineligible for asylum, cancellation of removal, voluntary departure, adjustment of status, change of nonimmigrant status, registry, and related waivers for this period. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you may also be criminally prosecuted under section 243 of the Act.

ADDENDUM TO NOTICE OF CUSTODY DETERMINATION

Gayle v. Johnson, --- F. Supp.3d ---, 2015 WL 351669 (D.N.J. Jan. 28, 2015)

This addendum to the Department of Homeland Security, Notice of Custody Determination (DHS Form I-286 (1/14)) is provided to inform you of the basis for your detention under the Federal immigration laws and your right to seek review of your custody determination.

On January 28, 2015, the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey held that the Notice of Custody Determination (DHS Form I-286 (1/14)) fails to provide aliens subject to detention with adequate notice of their detention status, i.e., whether the aliens are being detained under discretionary detention (Section 236(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a)) or mandatory detention (INA § 236(c), 8 U.S.C. § 1226(c)) grounds. As a result, the Court ruled that the U.S. Department of Homeland Security must inform all aliens detained in the State of New Jersey of the specific detention authority used to detain them and the type of custody redetermination hearing to which they are entitled. Gayle v. Johnson, --- F. Supp.3d ---, 2015 WL 351669, at *10, *25 (D.N.J. Jan. 28, 2015). This Addendum serves to inform you of the detention authority holding you and the type of hearing you may request.

Enclosed please notice that U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) has determined that you are being detained under either discretionary or mandatory detention authority based on the box checked for that specific authority. You then may request a particular hearing corresponding to that detention authority. In other words, you may request an individualized bond determination hearing if you are being held under INA § 236(a) (discretionary detention). Likewise, you may request a custody redetermination, i.e., a Matter of Joseph (Joseph), 22 I. & N. Dec. 799 (BIA 1999), hearing if you are being held under INA § 236(c) (mandatory detention).

If you would like to request a bond hearing or Joseph hearing before an Immigration Judge, please check the appropriate box and sign the form enclosed. A hearing then will be scheduled to determine your custody status.
